Paycheck Protection Program (“PPP”)

What is it?

$349 billion program administered by the SBA to provide financial assistance to entities with fewer than 500 U.S. employees or who are SBA small business concerns, which could include businesses with more than 500 employees. (https://www.sba.gov/federal-contracting/contracting-guide/size-standards#section-header-0)

What types of businesses are eligible?

- For-profit businesses
- 501(c)(3) Non-profit organizations
- Sole proprietors
- Independent contractors
- Self-employed individuals
- Veterans organizations
- Tribal business concerns

What are the eligibility requirements?

- Employees at February 15, 2020
- Business operations at February 15, 2020
- Represent to SBA that the company was impacted by Covid-19
What Can PPP loans be used for?

Payroll and certain operating expenses:

- Payroll costs;
- Payments of interest (but not principal or prepayments) on mortgage obligations in effect before February 15, 2020;
- Rent under a lease agreement entered into before February 15, 2020; and
- Utilities for which service began before February 15, 2020
- Interest on any other debt obligations incurred before February 15, 2020

SBA guidance indicates no more than 25% should be spent for non-payroll costs.

EIDL Loans used for payroll costs must be refinanced into a PPP, but the PPP is subject to the $10 million cap.
Payroll Costs

Sum of payments to any employee that is:

• salary, wage, commission, or similar compensation;
• payment of cash tip or equivalent;
• payment for vacation, parental, family, medical, or sick leave;
• allowance for dismissal or separation;
• payment required for the provisions of group health care benefits, including insurance premiums;
• payment of any retirement benefit; or
• payment of State or local tax assessed on the compensation of employees;

Payroll costs do not include payments in excess of an annual salary of $100,000 for each employee, prorated for the covered period.

Unless the applicant is the independent contractor, payroll costs do not include amounts paid to independent contractors.
Terms of Loans

Maximum loan amount is the lesser of:

- $10 Million; or
- The sum of
  (a) the average total monthly payroll costs for the past year x 2.5, and
  (b) the outstanding amount of any SBA 7(a) EIDL loan made between January 31, 2020 and April 3, 2020 (less the amount of the $10,000 “advance” under a SBA 7(a) EIDL loan)

Other Terms

- Interest rate: 1.00%
- No collateral
- Repayment terms: 2 years
- No personal guarantees
- No payment due for 6 months (interest still accrues)
- Prepayment permitted without any fee

For non-seasonal businesses in existence during the period of February 15, 2019 through June 30, 2019
Loan Forgiveness

Amounts paid under the loan during the first eight weeks after loan closing will be eligible for forgiveness if used for:

- Payroll costs (as defined earlier)
- Interest on any covered mortgage obligation incurred before February 15, 2020;
- Rent obligations on lease agreements in force before February 15, 2020; or
- Utility payments for which service began before February 15, 2020.
Loan Forgiveness

Limitations:

• Amount forgiven may not exceed the principal amount of the loan
• Only up to 25% of forgiven amount may be for non-payroll costs
• Amount forgiven will be reduced by any decreases in full-time equivalent employee headcount calculated by dividing (i) the average monthly full-time equivalent employees of the company between February 15, 2020 through June 30, 2020 by (ii) for non-seasonal employers, at the company’s election, the average monthly full-time equivalent employees between February 15, 2019 through June 30, 2019 or between January 1, 2020 through February 29, 2020
• Amount forgiven will be reduced if between February 15, 2020 and June 30, 2020 there is more than 25% reduction of salary or wages of employees paid less than $100,000 as compared to their compensation during the last quarter they were paid
• Reductions eliminated if rehire employees/restore salary by June 30, 2020
• Reduced by $10,000 EIDL Grant
Application Process

• Applications should be made directly to SBA-approved lenders, not the SBA. https://www.sba.gov/article/2020/mar/02/100-most-active-sba-7a-lenders

• Timing considerations:
  - Small Businesses and Sole Proprietorships: apply beginning April 3, 2020
  - Independent contractors and self-employed individuals: apply beginning April 10, 2020
  - Deadline: June 30, 2020
  - Early application is encouraged

Non-profit Organizations

• Nonprofit organizations that are described in IRC § 501(c)(3) and exempt from taxation under § 501(a) are eligible.
  – Includes churches that meet the qualifications of Section 501(c)(3), even if they do not have a determination letter.

• Religious Exemption for Affiliation Rules:
  – The relationship of a faith-based organization to another organization is not considered an affiliation with the other organization if the relationship is based on a religious teaching or belief or otherwise constitutes a part of the exercise of religion.

• Directorship non-profit corporations should ensure they have the necessary board approvals to apply for a loan.
Affiliation Rules

What is affiliation?
Affiliation with another business concern arises when:

- One entity controls or has the power to control the other
- Third party controls or has the power to control multiple business concerns

What is the effect of being affiliated?
The U.S. employees of all of an applicant’s affiliates will be counted in calculating the number of U.S. employees of an applicant in determining eligibility for PPP loans

How is affiliation established?
Affiliation is established through ownership, management control, or identity of interest as provided in 13 CFR 121.103 and 13 CFR 121.301
Affiliation Rule Exceptions

What are the exceptions to the affiliation rules?

General Exceptions:

- Businesses are not affiliated with their SBIC owners
- Businesses are not affiliated with their Employee Leasing Company (PEO)

CARES Act Exceptions:

- Hotel and food services businesses
- Franchises in the SBA’s Franchise Directory
- Businesses that receive financial assistance from licensed SBIC’s
